HAVE, and do ſtill continue to import Goods from London, contrary to the Agreement of the Merchants.—They have been requeſted to Store their Goods upon the ſame Terms as the reſt of the Importers have done, but abſolutely refuſe, by conducting in this Mauner.

IT muſt evidently appear that they have prefered their own little private Advantage to the Welfare of America: It is therefore highly proper that the Public ſhould know who they are, that have at this critical Time, ſordidly detached themſelves from the public Intereſt; and as they will be deemed Enemies to their Country, by all who are well-wiſhers to it; ſo thoſe who afford them their Countenance or give them their Cuſtom, muſt expect to be conſidered in the ſame diſagreeable Light.

NORTH-CAROLINA, Newbern, Octo. 23. 1769.

ON Thurſday laſt the Houſe of Aſſembly came to the following Reſolutions.

Reſolved nem. con. That the ſole right of impoſing taxes on the inhabitants of this his Majeſty's colony of North-Carolina, is now, and ever hath been, legally and conſtitutionally, veſted in the houſe of aſſembly, lawfully convened, according to the ancient and eſtabliſhed practice, with the conſent of the council and his Majeſty, the King of Great-Britain, or his governour for the time being.

Reſolved nem. con. That it is the undoubted privilege of the inhabitants of this colony, to petition their Sovereign for redreſs of grievances; and that it is lawful and expedient to procure the concurrence of his Majeſty's other colonies, in dutiful addreſſes, praying the royal interpoſition in favour of the violated rights of America.

Reſolved nem. con. That all trials for treaſons, miſpriſon of treaſon, or for any felony or crime whatſoever, committed and done in this his Majeſty's ſaid colony, by any perſon or perſons reſiding therein, ought of right to be had and conducted in and before his Majeſty's courts holden within the ſaid colony, according to the fixt and known courſe of proceeding; and that the ſeizing any perſon or perſons reſiding in this colony, ſuſpected of any crime whatſoever committed therein, and ſending ſuch perſon or perſons to places beyond the ſea to be tried, is highly derogatory to the rights of Britiſh ſubjects; as thereby the ineſtimable privilege of being tried by a jury from the vicinage, as well as the liberty of ſummoning and producing witneſſes on ſuch trial, will be taken away from the party accuſed. ◊

Reſolved nem. con. That an humble, dutiful and loyal addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to aſſure him of our inviolable attachment to his ſacred perſon and government, and to beſeech his Royal interpoſition, as the father of all his people, however remote from the ſeat of his empire, to quiet the minds of his loyal ſubjects, of this colony, and to avert from them thoſe dangers and miſeries which will enſue from the ſeizing and carrying beyond ſea, any perſon reſiding in America ſuſpected of any crime whatſoever, to be tried in any other manner than by the ancient and long eſtabliſhed courſe of proceedings.

The following Addreſs was then agreed upon, and ordered to be tranſmitted to their agent in England, to be laid before his Majeſty.

"To the KING's moſt Excellent MAJESTY.

The humble ADDRESS of his dutiful and loyal Subjects the Houſe of Aſſembly of his Majeſty's Colony of North Carolina, met in General Aſſembly.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal, dutiful, and affectionate ſubjects, the houſe of Aſſembly, of this your Majeſty's colony of North-Carolina, now met in general aſſembly, beg leave, in the moſt humble manner, to aſſure your Majeſty, that your faithful ſubjects of this colony, ever diſtinguiſhed by their loyalty and firm attachment to your Majeſty and your royal anceſtors, are far from countenancing traitors, treaſons, or miſpriſon of treaſon, and ready at any time to ſacrifice our lives and fortunes in defence of your Majeſty's ſacred perſon and government.

It is with the deepeſt concern, and moſt heartfelt grief, that your Majeſty's moſt dutiful ſubjects of this colony find, that their loyalty has been traduced, and that thoſe meaſures which a juſt regard for the Britiſh conſtitution, (dearer to them than life) made neceſſary duties, have been miſrepreſented as rebellious attacks upon your Majeſty's government.

When we conſider that by the eſtabliſhed laws and conſtitution of this colony, the moſt ample proviſion is made for apprehending and puniſhing all thoſe who ſhall dare to engage in any treaſonable practices againſt your Majeſty, or diſturb the tranquility of government; we cannot, without horror, think of the new, unuſual, and permit us, with all humility, to add, unconſtitutional and illegal mode, recommended to your Majeſty, of ſeizing and carrying beyond ſea, the inhabitants of America, ſuſpected of any crime, and of trying ſuch perſons, in any other manner than by the ancient and long eſtabliſhed courſe of proceeding; for, how truly deplorable muſt be the caſe of a wretched American, who, having incurred the diſpleaſure of any one in power, is dragged from his native home, and his deareſt domeſtick connections, thrown into a priſon, not to await his trial before a court, jury or judges, from a knowledge of whom he is encouraged to hope for a ſpeedy juſtice, but to exchange his impriſonment in his own country for fetters among ſtrangers; conveyed to a diſtant land, where no friend, no relation, will alleviate his diſtreſſes, or miniſter to his neceſſities, and where no witneſs can be found to teſtify his innocence, ſhunned by the reputable and honeſt, and conſigned to the ſociety and converſe of the wretched and abandoned, he can only pray that he may ſoon end his miſery with his life.

Truly alarmed at the fatal tendency of theſe pernicious councils, and with hearts filled with anguiſh, by ſuch dangerous invaſions of our deareſt privileges, we preſume to proſtrate ourſelves at the foot of your royal throne, beſeeching your Majeſty, as our king & father, to avert from your faithful and loyal ſubjects in America, thoſe miſeries which muſt neceſſarily be the conſequence of ſuch meaſures.

After expreſſing our firm confidence in your royal wiſdom and goodneſs, permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that the moſt fervert prayers of your people of this colony, are daily addreſſed to the Almighty, that your Majeſty's reign may be long and proſperous over Great-Britain, and all your dominions; and that after death, your Majeſty may take the fulleſt fruition of eternel bliſs, and that a deſcendant of your illuſtrious houſe may reign over the Britiſh empire until time ſhall be no more."

On Saturday laſt his Excellency the Governour ſent a meſſage to the houſe, deſiring their attendance on him in the council chamber: The houſe accordingly waited on his Excellency, when he was pleased to address them as follows :

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly,

UPON looking over the votes of your house, I find some resolves upon your journals ; resolves, that, after the assurances I had given you in my Speech, have sapped the foundation of confidence and gratitude ; have torn up, by the roots, every sanguine hope I entertained, to render this province further service, if, in truth, I have rendered it any, and made it my indispensible duty to put an end to this session ; I shall therefore require your attendance on monday next, when you will present to me such bills as be then prepared. WILL. TRYON.

On Monday the house came to the following Resolutions :

Resolved, On motion, That if any publick Officer shall exact illegal fees, or otherwise, under colour of his office, unduly oppress the people, such officer so acting, shall, on conviction thereof, receive the highest censure and punishment this house can inflict upon them.

Resolved, On motion, That all persons who oppose sheriffs, in the due execution of their office, shall be looked upon by this house as enemies to their country, meriting its severest censures, and deserving of its highest punishment ; and such persons will be treated with the utmost rigour in the power of this house to exert against them.

The same day, the house waited on his Excellency in the council chamber, when he was pleased to give his assent to four bills, viz. An Act for appointing an agent. An Act, to impower the justices in the several counties therein mentioned, to establish free ferries and bridges in their respective counties, and to lay a tax for defraying the charges thereof. An Act, for confirming the qualification of Henry Lockey, sheriff of Beaufort. An Act, to encourage the destroying of vermin. And then dissolved the assembly with a SPEECH :

(Which for want of Room we are oblig'd to defer.)

BOSTON, January 22, 1770.

Wednesday last was celebrated as the Birth Day of her Majesty Queen CHARLOTTE.

We hear from Plymouth, That the 22d day of December last was there observed, by a number of Gentlemen, by the name of the OLD COLONY CLUB, in commemoration of the landing of their ancestors in that place : On the morning of said day, a cannon was discharged, and an elegant silk flag hoisted at their Hall, with the following inscription, "OLD COLONY, 1620."

At eleven of the clock, A. M. the members of the club met met at the hall, and from thence proceeded to the house of Mr. Howland, which is erected upon the spot where the first licenced house in the Old Colony formerly stood : At half after Two, a decent repast was served up, consisting of a large baked Whortle-berry pudding, Sauquetash, Codfish, Clams, Oysters, a Haunch of Venison, (roasted by the first jack brought to the Colony) Sea Fowl, Fresh Fish and Eels, dress'd in the plainest manner ; all appearance of luxury and extravagance being avoided, in imitation of their worthy ancestors, at four o'clock P. M. the members of the Club headed by the steward, carrying a folio volumn of the laws of the old Colony, hand in hand walk'd in procession to the Hall : Upon the appearance of the members in the front of the Hall a number of the descendants from the first settlers of the old Colony, drew up in a regular file and discharged a volly of small arms, succeeded by three cheers, which were returned by the Club ; after this at the private Grammar School opposite the hall, a number of young gentlemen to express their joy upon the occasion, and their respect for the memory of their ancestors, in the most agreeable manner join'd in singing a song very suitable for the day. At sun sett a Cannon was fired and the Flag struck ; in the evening the Hall was illuminated and a number of the principal Gentlemen of the Town being previously invited joined the Club and the President (being seated in a large and venerable Chair formerly possessed by WILLIAM BRADFORD the second worthy Governor of the Old Colony and presented to the Club by Dr. LeBarron of that Town) delivered the following toasts, and a number of others, which were drank by the Company, viz.

To the Memory of our brave and pious ancestors the first settlers of the Old Colony.

To the memory of William Carver, & all the other worthy Governors of the Old Colony.

To the memory of that pious man and faithful historian Mr. Secretary Morton.

To the memory of that brave man and good officer Capt. Miles Standish.

To the memory of Sachem Massasoit, our first and best friend and ally.

To the memory of Mr. Robert Cushman, who preached the first Sermon in New-England.

May every person be possessed of the same noble sentiments against arbitrary power, that our worthy ancestors were endowed with.

May every enemy to civil or religious Liberty, meet the same or a worse fate than Arch Bishop Laud.

May the Colonies be speedily relieved from all the burthens and oppressions they now labour under.

A speedy and lasting Union between Great-Britain and her Colonies.

Unanimity, Prosperity and Happiness to the Colonies.

After spending the Evening in an agreeable manner in recapitulating, and conversing upon the many and various adventures of their fore-fathers in the first settlement of this Country, and the growth and increase of the same, at Eleven o'Clock in the Evening a Cannon was again fired, three Cheers given, and the Company withdrew.

It is greatly to the honor of the respectable committee that went to the houses of Messi'rs Hutchinson & Jackson the last week, that there appeared as much order and gravity in their procedure as is usual in a funeral procession. (e)

The Friends of Liberty in this Metropolis, as much applaud the behavior of the freemen of N. York upon a late supply, as they do detest the conduct of their house of assembly ; and heartily wish they were as happy as we are in having annual parliaments, and the members who compose those assemblies chose by a majority of the voters in the several towns, whose written votes are received in boxes by the select-men ; as it cannot be known for whom any freeholder votes, no candidate among us either publickly ask or can privately purchase a vote—But where a Representative is chosen for 7 years, this mode is more important, as a 7 years purchase may enable a few venal wretches to sell their Country.

Last Saturday died, after a lingering Illness, Miss SUSANNA CONDY, eldest Daughter to the late Rev'd JEREMY CONDY. We hear her Funeral is to be on Wednesday next.

A C——l this Day—It is hoped a Proclamation may be issued relative to the behavior of the Soldiery, which has been compain'd of by the Magistrate to his H——r and the C——l.

We hear that William Hamilton Scholar, supposed to be the young Man whom we have advertised some Time since to have passed a counterfeit Bank Note, &c. to Mr. Philip Freeman, jun. of this Town, has been taken up for High Way Robbery, and committed to Newgate ;—he is to be tried in March next.

THE Committee of Inspection inform the Public, that Israel Williams, Esq; and Son, of Hatfield, have imported a Parcel of Goods from London, contrary to the Agreement of the Merchants of this Town, and have transported them into the Country.——And,

That on Thursday the 11th Instant, Mr. Ezekiel Forgat of Leicester, purchased a large Quantity of Goods of Nathaniel Rogers, which is since he broke through his Agreement with the Merchants.

INTELLIGENCE EXTRAORDINARY.

LAST Week was apprehended the Black Prince Pirate, (a) for decoying the Leicester Packet-Boat, Capt. Forget, (b) upon Rogers's Bank, whereby she would inevitably have been lost, had it not been for the extraordinary Vigilance of the Inspection Galley, (d) by whose timely Aid and Assistance, 'tis hoped she will be soon get off, and her Cargo saved, which consisted of sundry Bales of American Liberty. BOSTON, January 22.

ON Tuesday last a notification was delivered out to the inhabitants of this town, inviting the Merchants and all others who were concerned in or connected with trade, to meet in Faneuil-Hall the next day at ten o'clock, among other things, "to consider of some legal and spirited measures to prevent the non-importation agreement being rendered abortive."——(6)

Accordingly on Wednesday at ten o'clock, a very numerous Assembly met at the Hall, and their first step was by an unanimous Vote to appoint WILLIAM PHILLIPS, Esq; Moderator.

The special reason of calling this meeting was then explain'd by a Committee which had been formerly appointed by the Merchants to inspect the manifests of the cargoes from Great Britain, and report to them such goods as should be imported contrary to the agreement which they had entered into.—This Committee has been commonly called, The Committee of Inspection.

It is here to be observed, that there were a few Persons who had refused to come into the agreement, and had imported as usual; & upon their names being reported by the committee to the Merchants at a former general meeting, their attendance was requested, and after divers conferrences with the body of Merchants, they all, except John Bernard, John Mein, and McMasters & Co. consented to have their goods stored under the care of the Committee of Inspection, till a general importation might take place in consequence of orders to be sent after the 1st of January 1770. Now the Committee had to inform the body of Merchants & Traders, that a number of those Persons had violated their contract; some of them by removing their goods, others by declaring openly their intention to sell theirs, and others by actually selling.—This was the occasion of the meeting: And as the town itself subsists by trade, and consequently every inhabitant may be considered as connected with it; but more especially as the rights and liberties of the present and future generations so much depend upon the Merchants being properly supported in their generous self-denying and patriotic agreement, there was perhaps as large and respectable an Assembly (tho' in Governor Bernard's sense not strictly legaliz'd) as ever appeared in the Hall.

It was now desired for the satisfaction of all present, that the several agreements entered into by these importers might be read, which was accordingly done. As the substance of these several agreements was the same, it is needless to take up room in this paper to insert them all: We shall therefore only recite those of Messieurs Thomas & Elisha Hutchinson; and of Mr. William Jackson: But lest it might be tho't particularly pointed and partial to mention their names only, we shall also here mention the names of the others, viz. Nathaniel Cary, Benjamin Green and Son, Theophilus Lillie, John Taylor, and Nathaniel Rogers: Some of whom, // for any thing we know, have in every other Respect conducted unexceptionably among their Fellow Citizens.

The following is the Report of the Committee of the Merchants, sent to treat with the Messirs. Hutchinsons, which is signed by said Committee, and shews the Agreement then made, viz.

THE Merchants and Traders convened at the Representatives chamber on the 4th of October last, being inform'd by Mr. Nicholas Boylston, that Messi'rs Thomas and Elisha Hutchinson were inclined to acceed to the Non-importation agreement of the Merchants, and had desired him to acquaint the merchants there convened, that they were ready to meet any committee they should appoint to treat with them, and at any place they might agree upon for that purpose: Upon which we the subscribers were appointed a Committee to confer with said Hutchinsons, and to report to the meeting: We accordingly repaired to the British coffee-house, where we met the said T. and E. Hutchinsons, who informed us that they had in August countermanded the orders they had given for goods, to be shipp'd them from G. Britain, and had no desire to do any thing contrary to the agreement of the merchants; that they had some time before propos'd to the committee, and were now willing to store the goods they had lately imported, and what they might import contrary to the agreement: After discoursing on the proposals they had formerly made of storing their goods till the 1st of January 1770, we told them, the Trade expected their goods should be stored on the same conditions others were; and that they should remain in the store, untill a general importation might take place. To this they reply'd, that a general importation might not take place in some years, and that it could not be expected they should keep them stored for 2 or 3 years.—After some debate on this point, we informed them that all the gentlemen who had lately acceded to the agreement, had stored their goods on this condition; that Mr. Richard Clark had made the same objection, and had proposed to fix it to a certain day, which was refused, as it was uncertain when the ships would arrive; and in case they did not arrive at the time fix'd, for his goods to be delivered, he would have an advantage of the rest of the trade, who had with-held their importations; and in case the trade came into any future agreement, to postpone their importations for a longer time: those who had goods stored would be invited to accede to such agreement: if any of them declin'd, their goods were to remain stored, untill a general importation might take place, in consequence of orders that might be sent from hence after the first of January.——To this Messirs. Hutchinsons reply'd, they did not mean to bind themselves to any future agreement the Merchants should come into, but to conform in every respect to the present agreement, and to house their goods under the care of the committee of inspection, on the same terms as Mr. Clark and others had done; and that the Tea they had lately imported, should be put into a store of their own at the North-End, and the key delivered to the committee. We then informed them, Mr. Clark and others had engag'd not to purchase of any Persons who should import goods contrary to the agreement, to which they made some objections; but finally consented: They were then urg'd to sign the agreement, but desired to be excus'd, and declared their intention was in every respect to conform to the present agreement, without any reserve; and to store their goods on the same terms as others; all which the chairman to prevent any misunderstanding, once & again, repeated as the report the Committee should make to the trade, viz.

That Messieurs Hutchinsons acceded to the agreement in every respect, and agreed to have their goods stored in a store of their own, to deliver the key to the Committee of inspection, untill a general importation should or might take place, in consequence of orders sent after the first of January, to which they consented, and were reported accordingly.

W. MOLINEUX,
Wm. PHILLIPS,
Boston, January 16, 1770. Wm. DENNIE, „
EDWARD PAYNE,
A. WELLES.

Mr. Jackson's Agreement was reported as follows.

Boston, 3d August 1769.

WHEREAS I the Subscriber have not heretofore joined with the Merchants in their Agreement for Non-importation, and am now sensible of the Utility of it; I do now enter into said Agreement: And whereas I expect a Quantity of Goods this Fall, I hereby engage to deliver up the said Goods, as soon as they arrive here, into the Hands of the Committee of Merchants, to be by them kept till a general Importation takes Place, or the Merchants at any future Meeting shall vote said Goods to be re-delivered. (Copy) WILLIAM JACKSON.

These, and the agreements come into by the other Importers being read in the Meeting—The Question was called for & put, Whether they had severally violated the agreement they had entered into with the Merchants, and passed unanimously in the Affirmative. And hereupon committees were appointed to wait upon them severally, and desire their attendance; but some of them utterly refused, others were not then at their Stores, Mr. Rogers, for a reason he gave, chose to treat with the Assembly by written Messages on both sides, and Mr. Jackson, tho' he refused his attendance was willing to submit his Store to the view of the Committee of Inspection: And the Committee were ordered accordingly, and in the afternoon reported that they found most of his Goods open and many articles sold; and further said that Mr. Jackson was ready to treat with any Committees.

After receiving the reports of these Committees, a motion was made that the whole body orderly and peaceably wait on Thomas & Elisha Hutchinson, and require of them the fulfilment of their contract made by them with the Body of Merchants: But upon a declaration made by two Gentlemen that the said Mess. Hutchinsons were ready to deliver their Teas which they had removed, if required, it was unanimously voted, that the two Gentlemen, with the Committee of Inspection, wait on them again and take their answer in writing.

While this Committee were out, upon the question being put, it was unanimously voted, that the whole body, orderly and peaceably, wait on Mr. William Jackson immediately; and five Gentlemen were appointed, who only were to treat with Mr. Jackson in his house, if he should please to admit them; and these five Gentlemen were not to report to any man the conversation that should pass, till their return to the Hall. The whole body accordingly repaired to Mr. Jackson's house, and returned to the Hall, where the five Gentlemen reported, That he had refused to admit them into his house.

The Committee of Inspection now reported, That they had waited on Mess. Thomas & Elisha Hutchinson, and that they had assured them, verbally, that they would deliver the Teas they had imported into their hands, to be by them kept till a general importation might take place: Upon which the meeting was adjourned till the next day at ten o'clock. The Committee of Inspection being first enjoin'd to see that the Terms of this Agreement be complied with in the mean Time.

The next Day the Assembly met according to the adjournment, and the number was larger than before; and the Committee of Inspection reported that the Hutchinsons had again departed from the agreement, and absolutely refus'd to deliver up the Teas as they had promis'd yesterday.

Hereupon the following Votes were pass'd, viz.

WHEREAS the Merchants of this Town in the month of August 1768, taking into consideration the deplorable circumstances into which the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the continent of America are bro't, by the operation of divers acts of the British parliament, made with the express purpose of raising a Revenue in America, without their consent: And the absolute necessity of every legal and constitutional exertion to be made by every order of men for the redress of grievances by the repeal of said acts, did enter into a solemn & voluntary agreement each with the other, not to send for or import any goods from G. Britain, such only excepted as are mentioned in said agreement, untill the 1st of January 1770; and on the 17th of October 1769, the said Merchants did renew and confirm the said agreement, and further contract each with the other, not to import any goods from Great-Britain, excepting as above-mentioned, untill the said revenue-acts shall be repealed.

And afterwards on the 4th day of December last, being desirous of acting with the strictest union of sentiment with the merchants of the other colonies, did conform to their agreement, and finally determine not to import any such goods untill the act imposing a duty upon glass, paper, colours, and Tea, should be totally repealed.

And whereas divers persons, notwithstanding this agreement of the merchants in general, did import goods; but upon application made to them, did voluntarily agree to store the same, and to put them under the care of the committee of inspection, not to be sold or disposed of untill a general importation might take place in consequence of orders sent after the 1st of January 1770.

And whereas Thomas Hutchinson, Elisha Hutchinson, Nathaniel Cary, William Jackson, Benjamin Greene and Son, Theophilus Lillie, John Taylor, and Nathaniel Rogers, who imported and agreed as last-mentioned, have violated said agreement, some by selling their goods, others by removing them, and others by openly declaring that they will sell them; and all by refusing to continue them under the care of the said Committee of Inspection.

Therefore, Voted unanimously, That the said Thomas Hutchinson, Elisha Hutchinson, Nathaniel Cary, William Jackson, Benjamin Greene and Son, Theophilus Lillie, John Taylor and Nathaniel Rogers, by this their unjustifiable and perfidious conduct, have forfeited all confidence, esteem and favour, from the Merchants & others their fellow-citizens and countrymen, having in the opinion of this body manifestly discovered a disposition to do every thing in their power to counteract and make void the united efforts of the whole continent, while struggling for its Liberties; and meanly sacrificing the rights of their country to their own avarice and private interest, have acted in conjunction with placemen, pensioners, and other tools and dependants, upon a formed and settled plan to entail upon the present and future generations, BONDAGE, MISERY and RUIN.

VOTED, That this Body will forthwith, orderly and decently repair to the stores or houses of the said Thomas Hutchinson, Elisha Hutchinson, Nathaniel Cary, William Jackson, Benjamin Greene and Son, Theophilus Lillie, John Taylor, and Nathaniel Rogers; and that Mr. William Molineux be and hereby is appointed and desired, in the name of the whole, each of whom shall and doth consider himself in the same predicament with the said Mr. Molineux, to demand of them, and each of them in the words following.——

SIR,

THE Body of Merchants and Traders of this Town, at their present meeting, have had before them a report of their committee, wherein it appears, to the satisfaction of all, that you have violated your solemn and voluntary agreement; It is therefore the determination of this body, no longer to confide in your honor, but peremptorily to demand of you, and accordingly in their name, I now peremptorily demand of you, the immediate delivery of all such goods as you have heretofore agreed should be stored; to be deposited in the care of the Committee of Inspection, and by them kept with equal safety as their own, until a general importation may take place, in consequence of orders transmitted since the 1st of January instant, agreeable to the contract.——

Your decisive answer is immediately expected.

After which four Gentlemen were appointed to accompany Mr. Molineux, who only with him should treat with the Persons mention'd, in their own Houses or Places of Abode if they should think proper to admit them; and that no Report should be made till the adjournment. Previous to the moving of the Assembly, which was judg'd to consist of upwards of One Thousand, it was voted to adjourn after the business now propos'd should be finish'd, till the next Day at Ten o'Clock, A. M.

The next Day being Friday the Assembly met again according to the adjournment; a greater number than had before appear'd and proportionably respectable, amounting in the opinion of the best judges to more than Twelve Hundred Persons.

The Committee of Inspection now reported that Mr. Nathaniel Cary (who had been out of town before) had declared in writing under his hand that he was content his Goods should remain unsold, and under the care of the Committee untill, the Agreement of the Merchants shall cease, or a general Importation take place, which was accepted by a Vote, and the Committee of Inspection were directed to provide a Store and receive the Goods.

Then Mr. Molineux made Report of his Proceedings agreable to the Vote pass'd yesterday, in substance as follows

That the Committee had waited on the several persons at their places of Abode; first beginning with Messi'rs Thomas & Elisha Hutchinson, who lived at the House of their Father, his Honor the Lieut. Governor of the province. The particulars of the Conversation, which was chiefly between his Honor and Mr. Molineux, may perhaps be related at another time: It is not a little surprizing to hear that it was observ'd upon this occasion, that a Contract without a Consideration was not valid in Law, while the well dispos'd Merchants throughout the Continent consider'd themselves bound to each other in this Instance by the Ties of Honor.——Upon the whole, it was reported; that upon application to the two young Gentlemen, they gave no satisfaction.

That upon reading the Vote of the Assembly to Mr. Lillie, he said that he had nothing left but his Life, which he would deliver up if they pleas'd.—That Mr. Taylor said he had sold all his Goods, except a few Bayes.—That Mr. Jackson's Shop was shut; and after knocking at the Door he look'd out of the Window, and said, he should not open the Door that Day.—That Mr. Rogers and Mr. Green were neither of them at Home.—And that Mr. Cary was willing and ready to put his Goods under the Care of the Committee of Inspection agreable to the Report of that Committee, mentioned before.

This Report being ended, the Moderator inform'd the Assembly that he had had an Interview with his Honor the Lieut. Governor, who told him that his Sons were willing to deliver the Teas that remain'd unsold, and the amount of what they had sold in money, into his (the Moderator's) hands; and the Moderator declaring that he would be responsible for the same, it was voted satisfactory. And it was also voted that the Moderator be desired when this Meeting shall be adjourn'd, to take an account of the quantity of Tea remaining unsold, and report at the adjournment.

There were several other Matters of smaller moment transacted at the Meeting, and then it was further adjourn'd till Tuesday (TO-MORROW) at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon——Before which time it is hoped the rest of the Importers will quiet the Minds of the Inhabitants of the Town and Country, by following the Example set before them.

We shall make no particular Remarks on the foregoing Transactions——They are related without any conscious Deviation from the Truth; nor have we the least Design to give Uneasiness to any one; but to answer what we apprehend to be the most valuable Purposes. What may seem to bear hard upon Individuals is not said by the Publisher of this account, but is contain'd in Reports of Committees, and in the Votes pass'd by the Body; which could not be omitted, without giving a maim'd and partial account of matters that greatly engage the attention of the Publick. We should have been glad indeed, if such an Omission could have been, consistent with Tenderness, or even Justice to the public-spirited Body that have been concerned in these Transactions. We think this Publication may serve to convince the World, that the Zeal of this Metropolis for the Rights of America is not abated: And that the Inhabitants are determined as far as is in their power to support the Merchants in their generous Plan of Non-Importation, as the most pacifick, as well as the most effectual Method at present, to recover our Liberties. And we have a further View, to defeat, if possible, the Designs of our Enemies, who have constantly and we have Reason to think do still misrepresent every laudable Effort as Treason and Rebellion, or at least as some express it, "very near the highest Crime against the State."

// Preference is had to Benj.a Green & Son & Nat.l Cary & Capt. Nathaniel Greenwood & Th.o Fletcher. ¶ By his Honour ? a Particular reference to Hutchinson & Commissioners.
